NOW LAUNCHING

Now live in Austin & Central Texas

Havana is opening to local appointment businesses first. Join now and your openings are among the first locals see.

Get seen first

Businesses that join early are front and center as locals start searching.

Built for right here

Local businesses, local customers, and a real person you can reach.

THE PROBLEM

Where appointment businesses lose money

01 Openings nobody hears about

A client cancels a few days out, or worse, a few hours before. You post a story, text a few regulars and wait. There is no fast way to tell people nearby you are open right now.

02 Locals don't know you exist

Plenty of people nearby have never heard of your business. They would book in a heartbeat if they knew you had an opening.

03 Customers give up searching

Someone needs an appointment today. They call around, hit full calendars and give up, while your open slot sits a few miles away.

04 Marketing drain

Ads, SEO and social posts eat money and hours, and they buy clicks and views, not booked appointments.

Have an opening? You are at the top.

On Havana, businesses get discovered by real-time availability. No bidding, no algorithm games, no ad budget.

HOW IT WORKS

From cancellation to booked, in minutes

Step 1

Post the slot

A cancellation hits. Put the open time on the board in seconds.

→

Step 2

Locals search

People nearby look for openings today, tomorrow or in 2 days. Yours shows up.

→

Step 3

They claim it

A ready-to-book customer grabs the slot. Your empty hour becomes revenue.

REAL-WORLD EXAMPLES

What a filled gap looks like

Dog groomers

A Saturday groom cancels. A pet owner nearby books it before the van leaves.

Auto repair

A Tuesday drop-off cancels. A driver with a check-engine light grabs the bay.

Paralegals

A consult cancels. Someone facing a filing deadline tomorrow books urgent help today.

Lash techs

A fill cancels this afternoon. A client with an event tonight grabs the chair.

House cleaning

Friday's clean cancels. A neighbor hosting guests this weekend books it.

Photographers

A family session falls through. Someone needing headshots this week books it.

Tutors

A student cancels the night before. A parent needing test prep takes the session.

Med spas

A facial cancels for tomorrow. A local searching for skin care books it.
